What to do When I Lose a Game
Coping with losing a game can be tricky for some children. One strategy that you can use is to prepare them ahead of time. Use this visual to discuss how they can respond appropriately to losing in a game prior to playing. Don't forget to reward positive and appropriate game playing behaviour.

Some classroom games you might like:
What to do When I Lose a Game

Helpful things to think or say:

- It’s just a game.
- Congratulations
- Maybe I’ll win next time.
- Oh well, nevermind.
- That was a good game.
- That’s okay, you won.

Helpful things to do:

- Shake hands with the winner.
- Do a high five with the winner.
- Tell the winner they played well.

Remember - it’s not about winning, it’s about having fun!